

PAID TRIBUTE . . . William Forrest, principal, and Mrs. Harry Campbell were presented with Honorary Life Memberships by the Madrona PTA at its recent Founder's Day program. Presentations were made by Mrs. Carl Brooks, left, Honorary Life Membership chairman.

ACROSS FOOTLIGHTS . . . Local residents will have an opportunity to see a bit of theatre next Thursday and Friday evenings when the Hillside PTA presents a comedy "The Villian's Last Stand". Curtain is at 7:30 p.m. both evenings. Pictured in an exciting scene are, from left, Charles Smith, a teacher, as the villian; Mrs. Alfred Kreman, as Mary Lighthouse, the maid; John Strom, principal, as Sheriff; and Mrs. Tony Santaella, Emmaline Lovely, the heroine. Tickets will be on sale at the door. This is a PTA ways and means project.

Halldale

Board members of Halldale PTA met Feb. 3 in the school auditorium. Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, principal, announced that land had been purchased, for parking facilities for the teachers at Halldale.

The school was visited recently by Mr. Robert Lamson, assistant superintendent, South District schools, Dr. Katherine Burkhart, coordinator of Halldale and Marymount, and the president of Marymount College in preparation for the teacher-training program of 14, going into effect in the fall.

Four new teachers, Miss Marianne Michels, Mr. Robert Ducey, Mrs. Bernice Hutchison, and Miss Sally Fanning have been added to the Halldale staff, due to an additional 80 students enrolling Feb. 1. Mrs. William Sather, juvenile protection chairman, has organized a committee to check on the local comic book situation. Several complaints from parents indicate that the number of undesirable comic books is increasing in this area.

Mrs. Warren Asnley, child welfare chairman, disclosed shoes and food were given to a family in distress last week.

Mrs. B. N. Kellam, ways and means chairman, announced April 12 for the spaghetti dinner and open house.

Entertains

Mrs. R. Bingham was hostess to her bridge club last Monday afternoon at her home, 1510 Engracia.

Following a dessert, bridge was played with prizes going to Mrs. J. L. Harmon, Mrs. Hazel Ward and Mrs. Bingham.

Attending were Meses. Eva Le Galley, H. L. Mitchell, H. J. Osborne, D. J. Quinlivan, Plu Whyte, Harmon and Ward. Mrs. Le Galley will entertain the club in two weeks.

Parents Here

15 New Colleges Added To AAU

Fifteen colleges and universities — two of them in California — have been added to the list of institutions meeting requirements for membership in the American Association of University Women, it was announced today by Mrs. Donald A. Liberick, membership chairman of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch.

All graduates of these institutions are now eligible for membership in the Association.

The new institutions, added to the list by vote of the AAUW board of directors on recommendation of the Association's Committee on Higher Education, are: Alma College, Alma, Mich.; Florida A & M University, Tallahassee; Henderson State Teachers College, Arkadelphia, Ark.; Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wis.; Marycrest College, Davenport, Iowa; Marymount College, New York City and Tarrytown, N. Y.; Mount Saint Mary's College, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mundelein College, Chicago; Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, Okla.; St. Joseph College, Hartford, Conn.; Stout State College, Menomonie, Wis.; University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, Conn.; University of California, Davis; University of Houston, Houston, Texas; and Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah.

The addition of these institutions now brings the AAUW list to 445 colleges and universities whose women graduates are eligible for membership.

Women college graduates interested in the AAUW program may call Mrs. Limerick for information about membership.

Moshers Are Hosts For OES Meeting

Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held its regular meeting Thursday evening in Masonic Temple. Jean and Ernest Mosher presided as hosts for the evening, giving an address of welcome.

The meeting was called to order by Worthy Matron Raymond Lougee and all officers entered. The flag was posted in the east by Estill Clere and the pledge of allegiance followed.

The chapter was opened by Bernice Ruppel, worthy matron.

During Escort, the following past matrons and patrons were escorted to the east: Grace Herd, Florence Viellenave, Jean Mosher, Addie Parks, Evelyn Howland, Naoma Winner, Edna Babcock, Lucille Watts, Bettina Miller, Vivian Cook, and Garnet Satterfield. Past Patrons were Fay Parks, Jack Miller, John Pennington, Vincent Viellenave, Earl Wills, Frederick Cook and Ernest Mosher.

The Worthy Matron and Patron spoke and made announcement of meetings for the next two weeks.

Doris Willets, chairman for the evening, invited members and guests to the dining room where the tables were beautifully decorated in the Valentine theme. On the committee were Maebell Carlton, Vilvia Kimbrell and Doris Koontz.

Card Party

Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will sponsor a public card party on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, in the Woman's Clubhouse, 1442 Engracia Ave.

The games will start promptly at 8:15. There will be prizes for high scores in canasta, bridge pinochle, and other games. A door prize will also be given.

The Past Oracles Club will serve refreshments during the evening of the tallies.
